

TABLE OF CONTENTS

PART I. SOURCES OF ENVIRONMENTAL LAW - DIVISION OF COMPETENCE RELATING TO ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY

- I. Introduction
- II. Sources of (environmental protection) law
- III. Division of competence and environmental policy
  - A. International and supranational level
    - §1. International level
    - §2. Supranational level: the European Union
  - B. Federal and regional level
    - §1. The Constitution
    - §2. Special laws
    - §3. Laws, decrees and orders
    - §4. Royal decrees, decisions of the Regional Government, ministerial orders
    - §5. Division of competence between the federal government and the Regions for the environment
  - C. Intermediary and local level
    - §1. The provinces
    - §2. The Brussels agglomeration
    - §3. The Municipalities

PART II. OBJECTIVES, PRINCIPLES AND INSTRUMENTS OF ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY

- I. Summary of the objectives and principles of environmental policy
  - A. Objectives of environmental policy
  - B. The basic principles
- II. Summary of the instruments of environmental law

PART III. SUMMARY OF EUROPEAN AND BELGIAN/FLEMISH ENVIRONMENTAL LAW

- I. Summary of European law
  - A. Introduction
  - B. Existing conditions

II. Summary of the most important environmental law legislation in Belgium and in the Flemish region

- A. General provisions relating to environmental policy
- B. The environmental licence decree, 7 VLAREM I and II
- C. Combating air pollution
- D. Combating surface water pollution
- E. Waste materials laws
- F. Land rehabilitation